

How I Can Promote Peace in Our Home

“Behold, how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity!”

Seek to please God in all that I do.

“When a man’s ways please the LORD, He makes even his enemies to be at peace with him.” (Proverbs 16:7)

Make every sacrifice I can in order to keep peace.

“If it be possible, as much as lieth in you, live peaceably with all men.” (Romans 12:18)

Obey my parents.

“My son, forget not my law; but let thine heart keep my commandments: for length of days, and long life, and peace, shall they add to thee.” (Proverbs 3:1-2)

Pray for my parents.

“I exhort therefore, that, first of all, supplications, prayers, intercessions, and giving of thanks, be made for all men; for kings, and for all that are in authority; that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and honesty.”

(1 Timothy 2:1-2)

Focus on what is good.

“Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things.”

(Philippians 4:8)

Seek to serve and encourage others.

“Let us therefore follow after the things which make for peace, and things where-with one may edify another.” (Romans 14:19)

Trust God’s wisdom instead of my own.

“But the wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, and easy to be intreated, full of mercy and good fruits, without partiality, and without hypocrisy.

And the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace of them that make peace.”

(James 3:17-18)

Humbly learn from the discipline and instruction I receive.

“Now no chastening for the present seemeth to be joyous, but grievous: nevertheless afterward it yieldeth the peaceable fruit of righteousness unto them which are exercised thereby.” (Hebrews 12:11)

Confess wrongs and ask forgiveness.

“Confess your faults one to another, and pray one for another, that ye may be healed. The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much.” (James 5:16)
