

GO TO THE ANT, THOU SLUGGARD...

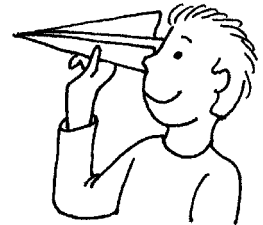

Are you talking instead of working?

“In all labour there is profit: but the talk of the lips tendeth only to penury.” (Proverbs 14:23)

Are you playing instead of working?

“He that loveth pleasure shall be a poor man: he that loveth wine and oil shall not be rich.” (Proverbs 21:17)

Are you tempting others to shirk their duties?

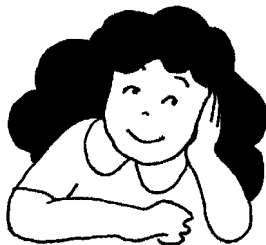

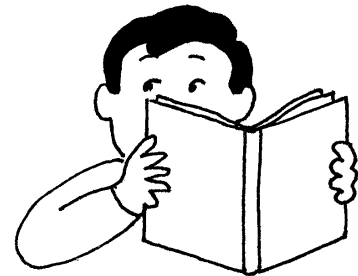

“Whoso causeth the righteous to go astray in an evil way, he shall fall himself into his own pit: but the upright shall have good things in possession.” (Proverbs 28:10)

Do you think that something else is more important than doing the task you have been given?

“No man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon.” (Matthew 6:24)

Are you allowing yourself to be distracted by other things?

“Let thine eyes look right on, and let thine eyelids look straight before thee.” (Proverbs 4:25)

Are you not paying attention to instructions?

“Hear, ye children, the instruction of a father, and attend to know understanding.” (Proverbs 4:1)

Are you doing less than your best?

“Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might...” (Ecclesiastes 9:10)
